FAITH IN ACTION

Sponsored in part by:

 "I've always been independent and it is hard to ask for help. I feel relief and comforted that I can call Interfaith, especially knowing I can get out when my family isn't around."

 "I no longer have a car. My daughter usually takes me, but she had a hip replacement. (Without Interfaith) I would have to do without. When I exhaust all my options, your volunteers help."

 "Interfaith Caregivers is a blessing for everyone," "Saves a lot of worries," provides "peace of mind," and "makes life possible."

How Can I Help?

- Tell others about Interfaith: Church or civic groups
- Volunteer a few hours: So much enjoyment - you will forget who is helping whom
- Provide financial support: Bequests, memorials, or any other donations are appreciated!

 "I volunteer because I can. I feel bad for the elderly who have had so many things taken away from them. It feels really good to be able to give them something back. They are so appreciative for even the smallest things."

- Jayne, West Bend

 It has been truly a blessing and an honor to work with my new friend. I feel that I'm growing more and learning more from her than what I am able to give."

- Lisa, Kewaskum

 "I enjoy working with people who need help. It is especially rewarding not to have a boss or pay income taxes."

- Chuck, Richfield

Don't forget, we work around busy schedules so you can choose to help when you are available!
