

When you think of the heart, you think of...

- a. Emotions
- b. Intelligence
- c. Morals
- d. The soul
- e. The organ moving your blood around

Why did you answer the way you did?

When someone says, “Listen to your heart” today, what are they saying?

What if they say, “He has a heart for the Lord?”

Read Romans 2:12-15

What’s the law apart from God’s law?

What’s the state of people who “are a law for themselves?”

Καρδιά ← “Heart”

Read Jeremiah 31:31-34

What covenant is God talking about?

How is this covenant different from the old?

לב ← leb, “Heart”

Both readings talk about law on people’s hearts. What seems different or the same to you between the readings?

The Greeks and Hebrews thought of hearts differently than we do today, but God’s will is for our hearts – in the fullest sense.

When you think of the heart, you think of...

- a. Emotions
- b. Intelligence
- c. Morals
- d. The soul
- e. The organ moving your blood around

Why did you answer the way you did?

When someone says, “Listen to your heart” today, what are they saying?

What if they say, “He has a heart for the Lord?”

Read Romans 2:12-15

What’s the law apart from God’s law?

What’s the state of people who “are a law for themselves?”

Καρδιά ← “Heart”

Read Jeremiah 31:31-34

What covenant is God talking about?

How is this covenant different from the old?

לב ← leb, “Heart”

Both readings talk about law on people’s hearts. What seems different or the same to you between the readings?

The Greeks and Hebrews thought of hearts differently than we do today, but God’s will is for our hearts – in the fullest sense.