

God at Work in Work October 17 & 18

Family connections matters to God. He is at work in the brokenness of family. God's Spirit, through your baptism, brought you into another family. Read Matthew 12: 46-50. How does being in Jesus' family help you to see God's work in your family?

Respond to these statements...

"Work is a four letter word."

"This then is the human condition. Work is a blessing; work is a curse."

"The whole purpose of every vocation is to 'love your neighbor as yourself' (Mt, 22:39) It follows that not every occupation or way of making money can be a vocation."

"It is important to remember in understanding vocation that He (God) does not operate as the world does, that He may call us to what the world or ourselves might consider "beneath us," lacking the glamour and importance that we would like for ourselves."

"TGIF" "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath." Jesus

"God Himself milks the cows through the vocation of the milkmaid." Luther

A proper understanding of the vocation of work changes one's view of retirement.

Read: Genesis 1: 26-30, 1 Thessalonians 4: 11-12

- What comes to mind when you read the words "subdue" and "have dominion?"
- What ways you are living out His stated purpose?

Read: Ephesians 6: 5-9 & John 17: 14-18

- What words jump out at you from the reading?
- How can work be a venue for godly connections?

God at Work in Work October 17 & 18

Family connections matters to God. He is at work in the brokenness of family. God's Spirit, through your baptism, brought you into another family. Read Matthew 12: 46-50. How does being in Jesus' family help you to see God's work in your family?

Respond to these statements...

"Work is a four letter word."

"This then is the human condition. Work is a blessing; work is a curse."

"The whole purpose of every vocation is to 'love your neighbor as yourself' (Mt, 22:39) It follows that not every occupation or way of making money can be a vocation."

"It is important to remember in understanding vocation that He (God) does not operate as the world does, that He may call us to what the world or ourselves might consider "beneath us," lacking the glamour and importance that we would like for ourselves."

"TGIF" "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath." Jesus

"God Himself milks the cows through the vocation of the milkmaid." Luther

A proper understanding of the vocation of work changes one's view of retirement.

Read: Genesis 1: 26-30, 1 Thessalonians 4: 11-12

- What comes to mind when you read the words "subdue" and "have dominion?"
- What ways you are living out His stated purpose?

Read: Ephesians 6: 5-9 & John 17: 14-18

- What words jump out at you from the reading?
- How can work be a venue for godly connections?