

Fulfilled: Confidence

“Do it right or do it twice!” What does this apply to? What’s a time you’ve had to start all over? What did you learn?

Maybe you’re really good at something – what’s a skill or passion you’ve developed? What did it take to “get good?” Any good stories along the way?

Read: Hebrews 10:11-18

What’s the difference between the sacrifice of the priests and Jesus?

What about Leviticus 4:20? Weren’t sins being forgiven there? The Hebrew word, kaphar, is used for atonement – it also has to do with covering over. Compare that to Hebrews 10:4,11. What’s the key word?

Would you rather your sins were covered over, or they were taken away (periaireó)?

So were the Israelites forgiven of their sins? Are Old Testament believers in heaven?

Read: Psalm 103:6-19

What does this Psalm tell us about God and us?

Read: Hebrews 10:19-25

How does the sacrifice of Jesus, in its uniqueness, make a real change? What does it mean to have confidence, and what are the holy places? What else does this passage say about our lives?

Fulfilled: Confidence

“Do it right or do it twice!” What does this apply to? What’s a time you’ve had to start all over? What did you learn?

Maybe you’re really good at something – what’s a skill or passion you’ve developed? What did it take to “get good?” Any good stories along the way?

Read: Hebrews 10:11-18

What’s the difference between the sacrifice of the priests and Jesus?

What about Leviticus 4:20? Weren’t sins being forgiven there? The Hebrew word, kaphar, is used for atonement – it also has to do with covering over. Compare that to Hebrews 10:4,11. What’s the key word?

Would you rather your sins were covered over, or they were taken away (periaireó)?

So were the Israelites forgiven of their sins? Are Old Testament believers in heaven?

Read: Psalm 103:6-19

What does this Psalm tell us about God and us?

Read: Hebrews 10:19-25

How does the sacrifice of Jesus, in its uniqueness, make a real change? What does it mean to have confidence, and what are the holy places? What else does this passage say about our lives?