

February 6 & 7, 2019

Personal and Small Group Activity

Say the following words to yourself, “Christ is risen. He’s risen, indeed.” Say them again. Take a moment and reflect upon what those words means to you. Specifically, write the first three implications for your life that truth brings to mind. Then share your answers with someone near you, as well as listen to theirs.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Large Group Teaching

Respond to this statement, “All Christians, at some level, miss out on the benefits of Christ’s presence through His promises of involvement in their life and in their relationships.”

Read and discuss the following scriptures:

- John 5: 19-24
- John 17
- John 20: 19-31
- Matthew 18: 1-20
- Galatians 2: 19-21
- Ephesians 5: 14-21

Respond to these statements:

1. Christ’s life in me is all gift, purely grace.
2. Bringing Christ’s life into my relationships isn’t easy for me.

“Connecting, Caring, and Sharing in Christ.”

February 6 & 7, 2019

Personal and Small Group Activity

Say the following words to yourself, “Christ is risen. He’s risen, indeed.” Say them again. Take a moment and reflect upon what those words means to you. Specifically, write the first three implications for your life that truth brings to mind. Then share your answers with someone near you, as well as listen to theirs.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Large Group Teaching

Respond to this statement, “All Christians, at some level, miss out on the benefits of Christ’s presence through His promises of involvement in their life and in their relationships.”

Read and discuss the following scriptures:

- John 5: 19-24
- John 17
- John 20: 19-31
- Matthew 18: 1-20
- Galatians 2: 19-21
- Ephesians 5: 14-21

Respond to these statements:

1. Christ’s life in me is all gift, purely grace.
2. Bringing Christ’s life into my relationships isn’t easy for me.

“Connecting, Caring, and Sharing in Christ.”